“Sottocielo” (Ref. AF403) — the pleasure of being together, in this apartment for rent in Varazze.

Just steps from the train station and five minutes from the sea, Sottocielo is a home designed for sharing simple days: going to the beach, gathering around the table, and letting a conversation linger. Two bedrooms and a large terrace offer space for spending time together and even taking a moment for yourself.

We're located in Via Mombello, an area of Varazze that combines tranquility and convenience. Everything is within walking distance: the sea, a stroll downtown, shopping for a dinner to prepare at home. You can leave the car parked and choose your day's program as you go.

The building, built in the 1960s and equipped with a lift, also has some shared parking spaces, limited in number and subject to availability.

The apartment includes a living room with kitchenette, two bedrooms, and a bathroom. The spaces accompany the different moments of the day, from morning coffee to the quiet of the evening.

The living room is where we meet: a breakfast to prepare, a quick chat upon returning from the beach, time to decide whether to go out or stay in.

The large terrace often invites you to stay.

Designed for living and equipped with an electric pergola, it welcomes an outdoor breakfast, an afternoon with a book, or a leisurely dinner.

Between one glance and another, you can also see a little piece of sea.

Here, you bring out a plate, add a chair, and stay a little longer. The pergola allows you to choose between shade and open air.

It's an extra room, under the sky.

The two bedrooms allow everyone to find their own space.

Sottocielo is the name we chose for this house, thinking of its terrace and the time we want to spend there: at the table, with a book, together with the people we left with.

For a family or for those traveling with friends, a home to return to after the beach and immediately feel at home.

Furnished and equipped to accommodate up to 6 beds.

Tourist rental agreement.
